YOLO MAID'S GREAT RACE

She Wins Three Straight Heats in Good Time From Two Fast Competitors.

Gold Leaf Had a Chance in the Third Heat, But Went Off Her Feet.

Jack McAuliffe Uniucky on the Turf-The Great Donovan's Winnings-Mr. Armstrong Coming H me.

The free-for-all pace did not fill, says the Denver, Horse, referring to the Sacramento races, and instead the directors substituted a special for Yolo Maid, Adonis and Gold Leaf. The betting on the event was heavy and fast, Yolo Maid selling favorite at $200, Adonis second choice at $160 and Gold Leaf going at $25.

In the first heat Yolo Maid took the lead as they swung into the turn, Gold Leaf close up to her, Adonis a length back in third place. At the quarter in 0:33%, Maid was a length in front, Gold Leaf a length from Adonis, 'The pace was very fast on the backstretch. The Maid went on in front. Adonis began to crowd up to Gold Leaf, and at the five-eighths post collared and passed her. At the half in 1:03%, Yolo Maid was three lengths in front of Adonis, Maid was three lengths in front of Adonis, and he two lengths from Gold Leaf. Andy was laying the heat up. The leaders gradually drew away from her on the second turn, and when the straight was reached the Maid was two lengths in front of Adonis and eight from Gold Leaf.

In the straight Hickok began to move Adonis up, closing his gap steadily. His driver gave him the whip, and he got to Yolo Maid's wheel. Sie, too, was given a few taps, and with the crowd cheering like mad, she went under winner, Adonis at her wheel, Gold Leaf ten lengths behind. When the time, 2:12½ was hung out the crowd cheered.

In the second heat the pools sold: Field, $110; Yolo Maid, $100. Adonis had had half a length advantage at the go, but Yolo Maid swung into the turn first, Adonis a length from her, Gold Leaf a length from him. The Maid was going fast, and at the quarter, 0.33½, she was three lengths from Adonis and five from Gold Leaf. Down the backstretch she drew away still further, and as she flashed past the half-mile post in 1305½, she was past the half-mile post in 1:054, she was four lengths from Adonis and eight from Gold Leaf. When she came into the straight she was still four lengths to the good of Adonis, Gold Leaf five lengths behind him. Adonis was again driven for the heat, and Quinton sent the mare along at her best speed, and would have finished the mile in 2:13, but his brother, who was standing at waved him back. He slowed the mare down, and jogged her under in 2:14¹/₄, Adonis fin-ishing three lengths behind her, Gold Leaf ishing three lengths behind her, Gold Leaf eight lengths.

Yolo Maid sold for $60 against $8 for the field in the third heat. Andy was moving his filly pretty strong while they were scoring, and it looked very much as if he was out for the heat. The filly had done nothing as yet, and was as fresh as a daisy. She was not going steadily as the bell tapped, and as they swung round the turn she went off her feet and lost every chance. When she got down again Yolo Maid was at the quarter, fifteen lengths from her and six lengths in front of Adonis. Even that distance away Andy made a trial for the heat, and he sent the filly along at a two minute. and he sent the filly along at a two minute gait. She caught and pussed Adonis in the middle of the back stretch and was within four lengths of the Maid when she passed the half in 1.05½. She could get no closer, and after a stern chase around the turn, Andy took her back. Adonis was six lengths behind the leader when they entered lengths behind the leader when they entered the straight, but he made for the lead and forced her out in 2.15½, Quinton giving her the whip at the drawgate, where she tired. Adonis was two lengths from her at the finish, Gold Leaf away back.
